Orlando Sanford Weather Advisory 3 - Airport Closure on Saturday Night

Sanford, FL, September 8, 2017 @ 3:45 PM – Due to current predictions for Hurricane Irma, Orlando Sanford International Airport (SFB) expects the last commercial passenger flight to depart at 5:15 PM on Saturday, September 9. There will be no commercial passenger flight activity after that time. All other airport / airfield operations will end at 7:30 PM on Saturday at which time the Airport will be closed until further notice. The Airport is not a shelter so please do not come to the Airport until operations resume. The Airport will open as soon as deemed possible followed by resumption of commercial passenger flight operations, both will be announced accordingly.

Passengers should check with their airline directly for specific flight details before coming to the Airport as it is possible for your specific flight's schedule is modified even if the Airport is deemed open.
